Presented by Pooja Singhal, founder of Pichvai Tradition & Beyond, Feast, Melody and Adornment is the collective's first major London exhibition.

Featuring over 500 hand-painted works, it celebrates the 400-year-old Indian art of Pichvai, tracing its journey from temple tradition to contemporary revival.

Since 2015, Singhal has worked with master artists in Udaipur to preserve and reimagine this sacred art form for modern audiences.
